The Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP) Financial Security for People with Disabilities

About the RDSP:

The Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP) is a Canada-wide registered matched savings plan specific for people with disabilities. It is a unique savings program that allows savings to grow in a tax-deferred environment and provides matching federal contributions of up to 300% annually.

In the info session you will learn:

- about the RDSP, grants and bonds that are available, and how to become eligible
- tips for applying for the Disability Tax Credit
- how to open, manage and benefit from your RDSP

Who should attend:

People with disabilities, families, caregivers, parents

Speakers:

Dan McDonald is a member of PLAN as well as a Certified Professional Accountant [CPA] with a PhD.

Justine Little is the Outreach Coordinator for the Access RDSP Program with Disability Alliance BC.
