Helping people with disabilities save for the future

Endowment 150 offers eligible people with disabilities a one-time grant of $150 to help their Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP) grow. This $150 grant, plus grants and bonds available from the Federal Government, will grow and help you save for your future or that of a loved one.

Who can apply?

Endowment 150 is available to adult residents of BC who:

- are under 60 years of age (if 59, the individual must apply before the end of the calendar year in which he/she turns 59)
- have had low income in one year since 2008 (have received income assistance or annual income below $25,000)
- have an RDSP
- have not previously received a $150 Endowment 150 grant from Vancouver Foundation or Plan Institute

People 17 years old and younger have different eligibility criteria. For details, please see the application form for children.

How to apply Any missing information will result in a delay in processing your application
