Helping people with disabilities save for the future

Endowment 150 offers eligible people with disabilities a one-time grant of $150 to help their Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP) grow. If eligible, this $150 deposit will attract up to $450 in government grants, for a total of $600 into your RDSP.

Who can apply?

Endowment 150 is available to adult residents of BC who:

- are under 60 years of age (if 59, the individual must apply before the end of the calendar year in which they turn 59)
- have had low income in at least one year since 2008
- have an RDSP
- have not previously received the $150 Endowment 150 grant from Vancouver Foundation or Plan Institute

People 17 years old and younger have different eligibility criteria. For details, please see the application form for children.

How to apply     *Any missing information will result in a delay in processing your application***

1. Complete the application form on the reverse side of this page or online at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/D9DJ7NX>
2. Include official proof of your RDSP account, such as with a recent statement; screenshot of account activity online; or financial institution letter, and must include
  - RDSP holder's name
  - The date within the last six months (not written on)
  - The term "RDSP" or "Registered Disability Savings Plan"
3. Confirm low income by choosing one of the following options:
  - I have received provincial income assistance at any time since January 1, 2008. (If you can access My Self-Serve attach printed Confirmation of Assistance from myselfserve.gov.bc.ca)
  - I have received income assistance from the Indigenous Services Canada (ISC) Persons with Disabilities (PWD) Program at any time since January 1, 2008
