Helping people with disabilities save for the future

Endowment 150 offers eligible people with disabilities a one-time grant of $150 to help their Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP) grow. If eligible, this $150 deposit will attract up to $450 in government grants, for a total of $600 into your RDSP.

Who can apply?

RDSP Holders can apply for the Endowment 150 on behalf of their child beneficiary if:

- ✓ The child is currently aged 0-17
- ✓ Your RDSP is active
- ✓ The child has not previously received this grant from any organization

How to apply: Any missing information will result in a delay in processing your application

- 1. Complete the application form on the reverse side of this page or online at https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/DHF3Q9L
- 2. Include official proof of your RDSP account, such as with a recent statement; screenshot of account activity online; or financial institution letter, and must include:
 - RDSP holder's name
 - The date within the last six months (not written on)
 - The term "RDSP" or "Registered Disability Savings Plan"
 - *Please note that RDSP Application Forms are not sufficient proof of RDSP.
- 3. Send all documentation by mail, email, or fax to Plan Institute and wait 6-8 weeks for processing.

Grants by default are issued by cheque, made payable to the holder.

- If you prefer to receive your grant payment by Electronic Fund Transfer (EFT), please submit a void cheque or a Direct Deposit Form with your account details (obtained from your financial institution).
- Please confirm with your financial institution the most efficient way of depositing the funds into your RDSP. If there are additional steps, such as having us make the cheque payable to the financial institution and mailing it directly there with any forms, please let us know. You must provide a signed letter of direction with your application to let us know how best to issue this payment.

^{}People 18-59 years old have different eligibility criteria. For details, please see the application form for adults.
